A collection of slide shows gleaned from years of backcountry travel – afoot and afloat – by photographer/outdoorsman Roger "Beaver" Williams. His three-decade statewide career with the Idaho Fish and Game Department included numerous slide show speaking assignments on various wildlife topics. Since retirement he has enjoyed choosing his own subjects for travel and photography resulting in these personally narrated programs.

CROSS IDAHO BACKPACK

A three-week, 250 mile backcountry hike across Idaho's wild midsection from Oregon to Montana – Hells Canyon to Nez Perce pass.

FROM ONE END TO THE OTHER: AN IDAHO EPIC

The trip that inspired the Centennial Trail. 86 days, 1200 miles backpacking from Nevada to British Columbia – sagebrush and desert canyons, Sawtooth peaks, Wild and Scenic Rivers, the Bitterroots and Panhandle rain forests.

THE IDAHO STATE CENTENNIAL TRAIL

A photo trip along the official Centennial Trail from Nevada to Canada, designated as a Lasting Legacy Project during Idaho's celebration of 100 years of statehood.

BEST OF THE CREST

Highlights from multi-day backpack trips traversing choice sections of the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail in Washington, Oregon and California.

HIGH POINTS OF THE U.S.

An eight year nationwide odyssey to reach the highest point of elevation in each state. From multi-day expeditions in awesome mountain wilderness to short hikes in mundane Midwest farmland, each state's high point is unique, interesting, and often spectacular.

SLICK ROCK, SLOT CANYONS AND THE SAN JUAN

Packpacking colorful wild country in southern Utah and a raft float down the lower San Juan River.

BEST OF THE WEST

Selected from the "High Points" and expanded to feature the wildest most spectacular summits of the western states.

BLAZING THE TRAIL

An assortment of interesting, often humorous photos of signs and blazes encountered in 30 years of hiking backcountry trails.
